REORGANIZE TOBACCO TRUST

Atty. Gen. Wickersham Says
Plans Have Already Been Completed

DATA SECRET TILL PLAN
IS PASSED ON BY COURT

Enormous Profits of Big Trust
Shown By Report of Commissioner Smith

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A secret conference regarding the reorganization of the tobacco trust is being held here today by Attorney General Wickersham, and a number of judges and attorneys. Great privacy marks the conference and Attorney General Wickersham declines to discuss the trust situation publicly.

Conferring with the attorney general and the officials of the department of justice are federal court judges and a coterie of leading tobacco trust attorneys.

Later Wickersham admitted that the plans had been completed for reorganization, but that the data settled upon would not be announced until the plan had been submitted to court.

PROFITS OF TRUST ARE ALMOST BEYOND BELIEF

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—That the Tobacco trust enabled the Duke Tobacco Company, on a capitalization of $250,000, to make a profit of $39,000,000, or 156 times the value of its original capital, from 1885 to 1908, is revealed in the report of Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, made public here yesterday.

Commissioner Smith says of the tobacco industry in the United States: "Investigation shows the vast earning power that arises from substantial control of a large industry. The great tobacco combination which centers around the American Tobacco Company, started in 1890 with $25,000,000 capitalization, operating only in cigarettes. By 1908 it controlled about four-fifths of the whole domestic tobacco industry, except cigars, and its net capitalization exceeded $316,000,000. This concentration is the basis of the combination's great earning power. High rates of earnings have gone with monopolistic control of the industry, and the less the degree of control the less the rate."

HIGHEST COURT TO TEST POPULAR LAW

Initiative and Referendum to
Be Passed on in Oregon
Law Suit

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The initiative and referendum probably will be the subject of a decision by the supreme court of the United States during the approaching term.

The question of the constitutionality of these expedients of government forms the basis of a suit between the state of Oregon, where they are in use, and the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company. As the case is near the head of the docket it will be reached in time to insure a decision before the end of the term.

The case originated in the company's challenge of a law enacted by the Oregon legislature under the initiative plan, by which a tax of 2 per cent was placed upon the gross earnings of telegraph and telephone companies.

EXPERT TO DONATE
WIRELESS SYSTEM
TO BEACH RESORT

LONG BEACH, Sept. 25.—Douglas G. Wallace, a young wireless expert of this city, has offered the members of the Chamber of Commerce a complete wireless system for installation on the municipal dock here if the organization would erect the necessary masts.

The offer came as a surprise to the directors of the chamber, who are enthusiastic over the possibility of having Long Beach provided with a modern wireless system and it is probable the offer will be accepted and the plant installed.

Oldest Dwelling

Archaeologists at a recent conference decided that the oldest dwelling inhabited today is a mansion belonging to Count Matuschke at Wintel-on-the-Rhine, Germany, which was built in 700.

SHERIFF OUT ON MAN HUNT WITH POSSES

TACOMA, Sept. 25.—After hunting through the mountains until dawn today Sheriff Longmire and two deputies returned to Tacoma and enlisted more assistance they again took up the hunt for Frank Clavin, wanted for the shooting of Mrs. Vivian Irvine, a nurse at Eatonville, twenty miles from here. After the shooting a posse of Eatonville citizens chased Clavin to Tacoma. After a fusillade of shots, the fugitive abandoned the buggy he was driving, and escaped into the woods. Mrs. Irvine was probably fatally wounded.

GOVERNMENT AIRSHIP
WRECKED IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The first naval airship built for the British government at a cost of $400,000 was wrecked yesterday at Barrow-in-Furness. It was drawn out of its shed at 7 o'clock in the morning and 30 minutes later was junk.

The new dirigible left its shed for the first time May 22 and was floated, but was found too heavy to fly. It was sent back to the shed four days later, and after much work was done the airship was taken over by the admiralty on September 22.

DEMOCRATIC MACHINE IS FACING GRAND JURY PROBE

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25.—The Democratic machine in Baltimore, which for a quarter of a century has ruled the town and dictated the nomination of candidates for mayor, sheriff and city council, is tottering and the big bosses are quaking before the grand jury's investigation of the recent Democratic primaries in which the grossest frauds are being brought to light. Six election officers indicted and arrested in one precinct is said to be only the beginning of the prosecution.

SAN BERNARDINO
PLANS NATIONAL
ORANGE SHOW

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 25.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, the first steps were taken toward making plans for the second annual National Orange Show, which will be held in February. President William W. Brison, Jr., is at the head of the committee appointed to select a home for the second annual show, and it is probable that a permanent building will be secured. It was urged by members of the Chamber that there should be carnival features added to the show this year in order to assist in drawing the crowds.

The managers of the show are laying plans with the expectation of having twice the space of last year to devote to the exhibits.

BOGROF OFFICIALLY
DECLARED AS HANGED

KIEF, Russia, Sept. 25.—Bogrof, the assassin of Premier Peter Stolypin, is officially declared to have been hanged shortly before noon today. Only a few officials witnessed his execution. Many doubt that Bogrof has been executed, although the Governor General says he witnessed the hanging.

A SOLUTION IS SUGGESTED

He Would Have National and City Supply Depots for Public Use

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—"The solution of the high cost of living," Dr. H. W. Wulet said today, "lies in the elimination of the useless middleman. In Washington I would have public stores where government civil employees could purchase household supplies as is done in the army and navy. The producers and consumers must be brought together. Every city has a supply bureau and there is no question but what it can be broadened into a depot of supplies. Under present conditions products pass through five hands and the public has to pay five profits."

With an enrollment showing a gain of nearly 200 pupils over last year, the Santa Ana city schools today began the fall term. The total enrollment of high school pupils is 502, of whom 100 are in the Commercial High School. There were 14 freshmen enrolled, making by far the biggest class in the history of the high school.

Enrollment by schools for 1905, 1910 and 1911, follows:

High School	1905	1910	1911
Washington	389	403	402
McKinley	494	261	168
Roosevelt	379	357	379
Jefferson	325	321	340
Lincoln		365	307
Fifth Street		20	10
Parental		60	100
Commercial
Total	1629	1707	1898

The total for 1907 was 1402. A goodly number will enroll tomorrow.

In order to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Miss Alice M. Frazier, who had been assigned to teach the Eighth grade of Jefferson school, Miss Leonard has been moved from Central school to Jefferson, and A. M. Davis, who taught at San Juan Capistrano last year, has been elected to teach the Seventh and Eighth grades at Central.

LONG BEACH Y. M. C. A.
DOUBLES—PLANS FOR NEW BUILDING

LONG BEACH, Sept. 25.—After a campaign of four days for an increased membership of 400 in the local Y. M. C. A. a total of 486 new members was turned in Saturday night, making the whole membership of the local institution 909, greater than any other Y. M. C. A. in any city of the size in California.

Of the new members 330 are men and 156 are boys. The campaign was conducted by five teams of business men and teams in the different schools of the city. The winning team consisted of Capt. Shively's business men's team, comprising R. L. Bisby, W. H. Reider, B. P. Tucker and J. J. Mottell, who gained 644 points. The winning team will be guests at a banquet given by the Y. M. C. A. this week.

As a result of the membership of the Y. M. C. A. being doubled it is probable that the local quarters will hardly prove large enough, and a campaign for a larger building or an addition to the present structure is being considered.

Great interest is taken here in the grand jury's investigation, as thousands of persons are fully acquainted with the mass meeting and other incidents of the car fight here which led to the arrest of eight men on a charge of conspiracy to obstruct justice.

"ON TO TRIPOLI" CRY THAT ALARMS EUROPE

European Capitals Shaken as Hostilities of Italy and Turkey Would be Spark for General War

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Advices of the situation between Italy and Turkey are alarming all the European capitals. It is feared that hostilities will furnish the spark needed to start a general European conflict. England's position is neutral.

The "On to Tripoli" cry raised by the government of Italy means the ending of industrial discontent. The movement is popular because the lower classes have been unable to find a place to dispose of their labor. The new African colony has also long been a government ambition.

It is believed the Tripolitans will aid the Turks on account of their being Mussulmans.

menting of forces in the disputed territory are now being devised. Thirty thousand Turkish troops are now in Tripoli.

The internal situation in Turkey renders it practically impossible for this country to consent to govern Tripoli jointly with Italy. The Young Turks are of the opinion that to strengthen their position in the Mussulman world they must fight to the bitter end, even though defeat be inevitable. Turkey has refused to grant Italy even a privileged position in Tripoli, to say nothing of government participation.

It is rumored that the cruisers Pisa, Amalfi, Giuseppe, Garibaldi, Varese, Francesco, Ferriuccio, and two flotillas of torpedo boats and destroyers, left Syracuse last night for Tripoli.

ITALY REPORTED TO HAVE LANDED TROOPS IN AFRICA

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Rome last night states that the Italian expedition for the occupation of Tripoli was to sail late last night or this morning. It is also rumored, apparently on good foundation, that Italian troops were landed today at three places on the north African coast.

Turkey Will Fight to Last Ditch

ROME, Sept. 25.—While the government last night refused to confirm or deny the report that Italian troops have been landed on the coast of Tripoli, tacitly declaring war with Turkey, it is officially announced that 112,000 reservists have been called to the colors and will be held in readiness to embark at Tripoli at a moment's notice.

Public sentiment favors an immediate occupation of Tripoli. The Socialists alone oppose an aggressive policy and the situation is complicated by that party's threat to call a strike if an international war is opened.

It is conceded that Turkey will fight to the last ditch to retain Tripoli. The country has a population of 1,000,000, and all but a few thousand of the inhabitants are Mohammedans.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—England and Germany are urging Turkey to yield to Italy's demands and allow her to occupy Tripoli. Both wish to remain neutral, but it is impossible to tell what may happen if trouble is precipitated.

CANAL MAY OPEN IN FIFTEEN MONTHS

Expert Engineer Silsbee Says
Canal Route Will Lower
Fruit Rates

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 25.—Ships will be passing through the Panama Canal in fifteen months, according to Thomas H. Silsbee, a civil engineer who has just returned to this city from the Canal zone. He declared that remarkable progress has been made by the construction force and that steamship lines are already asking for rates.

Silsbee learned that after the completion of the canal California fruit may be shipped from San Diego or San Pedro to New York on fast steamers in ten or twelve days, which is better time than is made by railroads in the same service, at smaller cost. The fruit will be subject to none of the jar which causes decay.

Whatever the steamship rate may be for vessels flying between our own and foreign ports, Silsbee declares that American vessels will be given half that rate, providing that they ply from one port in the United States to another in this country.

GRAND JURY WILL FINISH UP SOON

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 25.—The grand jury this afternoon resumed its investigation in Tacoma in regard to the conspiracy case against the eight citizens accused as the result of an impeachment campaign against Federal Judge C. H. Hanford. It is believed that the hearing of witnesses will be completed this afternoon and voting on indictments may be expected late today or early tomorrow.

316 LOST IN SINKING OF "LIBERTE"

Big French Cruiser's Disaster
Parallels Blowing Up of the Maine

SHIP WAS RENT BY THREE SUCCESSIVE EXPLOSIONS

Ship Lifted in Air, Then Sinking in Water Enveloped in Dense Smoke Cloud

TOULON, France, Sept. 25.—At 3:30 this afternoon it was officially stated that the list of casualties in the loss of the cruiser Liberte reached 316. At the time of the explosion 120 of the cruiser's crew were ashore. The total strength of the ship was 710 men. When a roll call of the survivors of the disaster was held in the squadron's flagship, only 274 men, of whom 40 were seriously hurt, responded.

The destruction of the Liberte strikingly parallels the blowing up of the Maine in Havana harbor, and the early accounts of the disaster were followed by the wildest excitement throughout the country. The fire on the warship started at five in the morning and there were successive explosions at 5:30, 5:45 and 5:55. Immediately after the last explosion, which was by far the most severe, the vessel was apparently lifted into the air then sank into a dense cloud of smoke.

With the first sign of fire on the Liberte the other ships of the squadron went to her relief and many acts of heroism were performed by members of the crews of other warships. The force of the explosion in the main magazine was terrific. It killed twenty seamen outright and injured fifty others.

Before the first explosion on the Liberte came an alarm that the fire on the cruiser was a dangerous one had spread through the fleet to the naval officers ashore and tugs were equipped with fire-fighting apparatus and were enroute from the naval anchorage when the first crash came.

When the big magazines of the Liberte exploded hundreds of persons who were standing on the docks watching the progress of the fire, were felled to the earth. The whole city rocked to the crash.

The warship "Republique" was badly damaged by the explosion, and was hurriedly dry-docked. The explosion broke the "Liberte" in two, and the forward part lies in the bottom of the harbor upside down.

Hurtled through the air by the terrific detonation, a huge block of metal dropped on a launch which was enroute from the shore to bring back members of the crew, sinking it and killing every occupant of the launch.

A war minister died. Cases arrived here today and ordered a general court of inquiry into the cause of the disaster. The Liberte only recently has been inspected and was then pronounced the model of her class.

TAFT PURSUES TALK ON VETOES

Kansas Insurgent Farmers Are Silent as He Discourses on That Theme

COFFEYVILLE, Kas., Sept. 25.—With hardly a cheer or a handclap to cheer him on from the ten thousand persons thronging about the stand, President Taft today defended his vetoes of the wool, cotton and other bills. The farmers in the heart of the insurgent district, stood glum and silent as the President voiced his defense.

"Bound as I was to my platform pledges," said Taft, "to see American industry sufficiently protected, I could do nothing but withhold my signature from the bills."

CHICAGO AND 'FRISCO
LEAD SAVINGS DEPOSITS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Next to Chicago, San Francisco leads all large cities of the United States in the volume of postal savings deposits in the rush to the new savings banks. An average daily deposit of $6900 was recorded in San Francisco the first four days after the opening against average daily deposits of $5,332.80 for the first four days in New York, $2,894.80 in Boston and $2,499.40 in St. Louis.

San Francisco's total the first four days was $27,600. In Los Angeles the first day was deposited $5,874 and the second day $6,629.

ATTEMPTED TO ENTER DEPOT

Burglar Tried Doors and Windows of S. P. Office at West Orange

Saturday night at 1 o'clock an attempt was made to burglarize the Southern Pacific depot at West Orange. Mrs. Hill, the agent, was away on a vacation, but her brother, Ernest Rurup, and brother-in-law, Stan Erwin, were sleeping there. They heard someone trying the doors and prying at the windows. One of the men in the depot quietly telephoned to Deputy Sheriff Jernigan at Santa Ana. As Jernigan was dressing the clock struck 1 o'clock, and the deputy was at the depot by 1:10 o'clock.

Possibly because he had heard the voice at the telephone, the intruder had run. Jernigan and Rurup and Erwin beat the orchards and river bottom in the vicinity but could get no trace of the miscreant.

CAN'T FORCE ORANGE COLOR

Recent Decision Will Have a Widespread Effect All Over This State

Los Angeles Tribune: Orange growers of both Southern and Northern California are facing the possibility of a heavy loss in the marketing of the early crop—the crop that always brings the best prices—owing to a recent decision rendered under the food and drug act of June 30, 1906, which rules that oranges cannot be colored artificially by heat.

In order to get oranges in the eastern markets as early as possible it has always been customary in past years to force the color of the fruit by submitting it to a heating process. The investigating committee working under the food and drug act has ruled that it finds this process colors the orange, but does not increase the amount of sugar or reduce the acidity as when the fruit is allowed to remain on the tree.

The decision will cause a greater loss to the growers in Butte and Tulare counties than in Southern California, as in that locality there have been more shipments of such oranges. Packers in that vicinity have made elaborate preparations for the coloring of oranges this year and indications pointed to unusually large returns.

The result of the ruling will be to delay delivery of the fruit until prices have fallen to the normal with a resultant heavy loss.

It is estimated by shippers that usually about 3000 cars of early oranges are sent east, a large proportion of which have been submitted to this process of coloring.

An exempt clause in the decision pertaining to early northern California navel, which it is found attain their full sweetness before changing from green to yellow, will let out some of the growers in that section without serious loss.

JAP WOMEN HAVE SOCIETY

When Celery Season Begins There Will Be 800 Japs in the District

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 25.—Japanese women of Talbert, Wintersburg, and Smeltzer, near this city, have organized a ladies' society, said to be the first one known in this country, for the purpose of having an opportunity for religious and social intercourse. The first meeting was held this week and was largely attended.

When the celery harvesting season commences next month there will be fully eight hundred Japanese in the peatlands, and a proportion of them will be women.

Thomas J. Brainerd of Colorado took charge of the Huntington inn today, the former manager, Roy M. Oliver, removing to Gardena. The inn will be at once renovated for the winter trade, and will be in every way a first-class hostelry.

Mrs. A. W. Schuele, wife of one of the trustees of the Huntington Beach Union High School, died this morning at her home near this city, as the result of an accidental fall received last week.

Hanslar Larter, a rancher, residing near here, has a number of Irish potatoes, the smallest weighing eight pounds. They are of remarkable size and quality, and are said to be the largest potatoes ever raised in this section.

40,000-TON BATTLESHIP TO BE BUILT BY THE U. S. NAVY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The construction of a 40,000-ton battleship, equipped with 16-inch guns, is planned by the Navy Department. Officials of the Navy Department have decided the construction of this monster dreadnaught under consideration for some time and it is understood here they have decided it would be better to build a battleship with a 40,000-ton displacement, which is about the maximum, considering the 110-foot limitation of the Panama Canal, without delay than to wait for the necessity of such a ship, which, they assert, is sure to come in the near future.

Rear Admiral Twining has submitted specifications of the 16-inch gun for this type of battleship.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Rowley Drug Co.

BIG HIGHWAY PROJECT ON

State of Oregon Takes Hold of Good Roads Movement With Enthusiasm

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 25.—With the arrival of its road-marking crew at the California border Wednesday, Sept. 20, Pacific Highway became an established fact in the state of Oregon. One may now drive from California to Vancouver, B. C., guided only by the tall, black and white signs with their double faces and plain legends. These signs at every cross-roads from Coletown to the Columbia and northward to the British Columbia metropolis.

No good-roads project has ever before met with such spontaneous enthusiasm from the people of Oregon as Pacific Highway. At every way-point of any consequence, the road-making party, composed of F. M. Fretwell, secretary of the association, M. K. McRae, J. V. Connell, and A. V. House, was met by delegations representing all the important business and automobile organizations, as well as the county officers. The cordial reception they accorded the travelers showed plainly the great place occupied by the project in the minds of the Beaver State public. That highways are a main topic of interest in Oregon now is illustrated by the interest shown in the plans of the State Roads Commission. In several counties a series of mass meetings is being held to discuss the furtherance of road construction and maintenance; and it is probable that the next legislature will make ample provision for this work.

The marking of Pacific Highway through Oregon was made possible through the generosity of M. C. Dickenson, hotel owner, of Portland and Seattle, who, at the recent association convention in Portland agreed to finance the work. A five-ton motor truck was also lent by the Landy Auto Company of Portland, while the E-M-F branch, of the same city, furnished a Flanders "20" touring car for the convenience of the party.

It is possible that the route of Pacific Highway from Oregon City to Salem may be moved across the river from the west side to the east, as the latter route was recently selected by the Capital Highway Commission.

"If the proposed east side road is shown to be a better one," says Vice President F. B. Riley, "there is no reason why a change cannot be made."

CLIFFS GROW IN POPULARITY

LAGUNA BEACH, Sept. 25.—Laguna Beach has been growing in popularity all this summer, and well it might. People of Orange county who have not visited the section of coast here may not know that they have in this county the finest and most picturesque beach in the state.

Laguna Cliffs cannot be compared with any other beach resort for it has characteristics all its own—its mountain background and rock-ribbed shore. The coast line abounds in caves and strips of sandy beaches affording ideal places for bathing and fishing.

The cliffs which line the shore are of moderate height—affording a fine view and the beach can be easily reached from almost any point. The cliffs have stood the erosion of time and do not scale or break as do some of the other cliffs along the coast.

The land between the mountain and the sea has a gentle slope and all level ground. The soil is very fertile and will grow almost anything, and palms, fruit, flowers, berries, vegetables grow in profusion around the homes out there.

Laguna Cliffs also enjoys another exceptional advantage. It owns and controls an abundance of the best drinking water which is piped to each lot and has been used in the homes for years.

The Laguna marine laboratory of Pomona College will be located here. This laboratory will co-operate with the U. S. Fish commission, and with other laboratories of the sort, in every form of the work possible. All of the work of the laboratory will be of the most approved of its kind, calculated to win commendation among scientific men of the world over.

MISS MONNIE MAGEE IS CARNIVAL'S QUEEN

Anaheim Plain Dealer: The Queen of the Carnival will be Miss Monnie Magee of Olinda.

The winner of the contest is a charming and accomplished young lady and that she is extremely popular is evidenced by the avalanche of votes which she received. That she will reign and preside over her court with queenly dignity is not questioned. All hail to Queen Monnie!

The contest for the Queen of the Carnival closed Thursday night, but the counting of the votes was not concluded until yesterday noon—the ballot boxes from Olinda and Fullerton being brought to this city and counted in connection with the Anaheim votes.

Up to the first of the week there were four candidates, who Miss Mickle withdrew. This narrowed the contest to Miss Monnie Magee of Olinda, Miss Leona Esmay of Fullerton, and Miss Susan Beebe of Anaheim. Each one had many supporters and the last week the rivalry was keen but conducted in good-natured manner.

GHREIST OUT AFTER SCALPS

Newport Beach Has Recall Petition—Double Track Is Wanted

Newport News: C. H. L. Ghreist, manager of the Newport Bay Light & Power Co., has been circulating a petition this week asking for a special election for the recall of Trustees A. N. Smith, C. A. Barton, R. J. Stauss, S. L. Collins and A. A. Lester, and City Marshal and Street Superintendent Albert Hermes. Mr. Ghreist has not been on good terms with the trustees since they turned down his request for a raise in the price for lighting the streets. The city had been paying $133.50 for street lighting and Mr. Ghreist asked that this be raised to $150 a month and also wanted the board to enter into a contract for five years. It is reported that Mr. Ghreist is meeting with many refusals to sign the petition, and in the meantime those favoring municipal ownership of the electric light and gas plants are working with renewed energy in getting names to a petition asking the trustees to call a special election to re-submit this question to the voters of the city. The street superintendent is placed in the same category as the trustees on account of his alleged influence with the board in matters detrimental to the light company.

At an adjourned meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held in the city hall Tuesday evening President Wilson appointed a committee of five to take up with the Pacific Electric the matter of at once double-tracking the road between Huntington Beach and La Brea. The committee appointed consists of Lew H. Wallace, John King, Martin Belkouski, Albert Hermes and F. W. Beckwith.

A motion by Albert Hermes carried that a committee be appointed to notify the Santa Ana sugar factory that this city did not propose to let the factory continue to dump its sewage into the Santa Ana river and thus contaminate the waters of Newport bay. The committee consists of Albert Hermes, W. W. Wilson and W. K. Parkinson.

John King stated that he had a balance left from the defunct athletic club which he was willing to turn over to the Chamber of Commerce. The gift was accepted.

The street light proposition precipitated a hot argument, Mr. Crozier advocating that the city resume the contract with Mr. Ghreist even at the higher rate asked. This was opposed by Mr. Wilkinson and others who claimed that the trustees had made a mistake in discontinuing the gas lights formerly on the streets in favor of the electric lights and that it was not policy to enter into an extended contract with the electric light company. The matter was finally brought to a close by the appointment of a committee consisting of L. S. Wilkinson, Albert Hermes and Horace Little to urge upon the trustees the necessity of lighting the streets in some way. The meeting then adjourned sine die.

Bounding Health

Every man and woman has an inherent right to—and can have and enjoy—the blessings of vigorous health and strength—if they will utilize what nature and science have provided for the renewing and up-building of the human body.

The wonderful new herb remedy that is revolutionizing the treatment for disease is Brackett's System Builder, a "pleasant-to-take" tablet, containing no habit-forming drugs—the result of Mr. Brackett's twenty years' experience filling doctors' prescriptions and coming in contact with thousands of sick people. The proof of its merits are the thousands of cures it has effected. Brackett's System Builder assists nature in building vigorous bodies by purifying and renewing the blood, thereby strengthening the heart, improving the circulation—overcoming nervous weakness, debility, loss of ambition, loss of vitality; by revitalizing, reinvigorating the body, brain and nerves to their highest efficiency, thus overcoming all chronic disorders of the system. For sale at first-class drug stores, 50c per box, or sent prepaid upon receipt of price by Robert A. Brackett Co., chemists, Los Angeles, Cal. T. H. OBJECTIONABLE ADVERTISING

The Automobile Club of America set apart September 1 as the date for beginning a campaign for destroying advertising signs in the highway limits. A new statute in that state makes such signs illegal in that location. Nature lovers have since converted many of these signs into something of greater economic value by reducing them to kindling wood.

This form of advertising arouses so much antagonism that it is not an efficient method of selling goods. But some persons seem to think that a man goes out into the country haunts and woodland scenes to search after the best tooth powder or malt extract.

There is a time to buy and a time to sell. Ordinarily people are only too glad to listen to what business men have to say for their wares.

They turn eagerly to the advertising columns of a newspaper to see what the merchants have to say about their bargains.

But there are times when one wishes to get away from the commercial side of life, and it is in such moods that one walks, drives, or motors amid rural scenes. When solicitations to buy this or that inopportunely pursue you even to these retreats, it is as if you escaped early from your office to avoid a persistent agent, only to find him ensconced in your easy chair at home loaded with a new volley of appeals.

Rev. S. G. Wood, of Blandford, Mass., made a national reputation by a campaign against advertising in the public roads. He cleaned out the signs with his nimble axe for seven miles around. When the advertisers erected them on private land, he persuaded the owners to withdraw permission. Then the advertisers placed the signs out of his reach high up in the trees. But Mr. Wood sent his athletic son up after them with his weapon.

The North End Improvement Society of Tacoma, Wash., got after the bill board people by courteous requests not to use this form of advertising. As a last resort they agreed not to patronize those disregarding the appeal.

Most of our states will undoubtedly have laws in time, similar to New York's new statute, excluding such notices from the streets. The control of them on private property is more difficult.

In England the House of Commons has passed a law against scenery defacements, Rio de Janeiro and other foreign cities practically abolish the nuisance by heavy taxation.

In our country we are more sensitive to private rights. We do not interfere with a man who makes himself grotesque by a bushy beard and scraggy hair. Likewise we hesitate to deal with one who prefers the profane disfigurements of the paint pot to the lovely pictures in shining greenery from Nature's master hand. But there is a growing disposition to attack such defacements as public nuisances.

Direct Legislation and Suffrage
Although all powers of government originate from the people, heretofore, in California, they have surrendered them to legislative bodies. The right of the state to legislate is unlimited, except only as to the powers surrendered in the Federal Constitution. The State Constitution is a limitation placed on the Legislature by the people. In it there has always been reserved a compulsory referendum on constitutional amendments and bond issues. The people, in an endeavor to correct public evils, have forced the Legislature to propose many amendments at every session. Each amendment adopted restricts some, and often every, law on the statute books. A legislative act or law affects only the matters to which it refers.

Senate Constitution Amendment No. 22, which will be known on the ballot as No. 7, restores to the people full control over all legislation. It reserves to the people the power to initiate laws, which shall be submitted to vote, upon being petitioned for by twelve per cent of the electors. The Legislature may save the expense of such an election by adopting any measure proposed.

The referendum is extended to acts of the Legislature none of which shall become effective until ninety days after adjournment, except urgency measures. If, during that time, there is filed with the Secretary of State, a petition signed by five per cent of the electors, asking that any measure be submitted to popular vote, it shall not become effective until approved by the people. There can be no veto of laws adopted by referendum.

Should this amendment be adopted, our Constitution may then safely deal only with fundamental matters of government. The legislation it now contains may be repealed, and reenacted as statutes of the state. Thus they will become equally effective, and beyond the power of the Legislature to annul. The "unconstitutional" excuse of courts for interfering with legislation will no longer exist.

Direct legislation will be a check upon dishonesty, fraud and trickery in the Legislature. If corrupt interests bribe a bill through, the people will have the last say about it. Public scrutiny will make legislators cautious in offering or voting for bills. Having this power, the people will give more attention to the working of the Legislature, and become more familiar with the affairs of their government.

State Constitutional Amendment No. 8, which will be No. 4 on the ballot, strikes from the Constitution the limitation of the electoral franchise to males. Women and men will be equal politically when this amendment is adopted.

Under the old order, suffrage was regarded as a grant of privilege given by a king, who governed by divine right. We, in our democracy, assert it to be the right of every human being possessing reason, and insistently withhold it from women. It is by the ballot that the right of self-government is exercised. It is the only means by which personal rights can be preserved.

The right of women to vote is as absolute as that of man. He who would prevent her from so doing arrogates to himself the authority to dictate her actions. Every law restrains and interferes with the liberty of men and women. Shall it continue to be that men only will say what restraints shall be put upon women?

No one is capable of governing another. Government must develop from the people themselves. If one sex prescribes the law of the land, the other will not, and has not, received justice. It is only by the ballot that force and expression may be given to the needs of each person.

To make any class dependent on another politically for their rights weakens and debases both. "Equal rights for all" can be attained only by each possessing equal power. Special privilege has always been grasped by those who gain political ascendancy.

If the ballot is a privilege, who shall grant it in a democracy? If "all are created free and equal," where does the right of any one come from to deny the electoral franchise to another?

I grieve to note that interest in the woman suffrage movement has suddenly and greatly subsided in Santa Ana. This is the season of the Fall millinery openings, and the suffrage question will be hung up until the fall hat is selected.

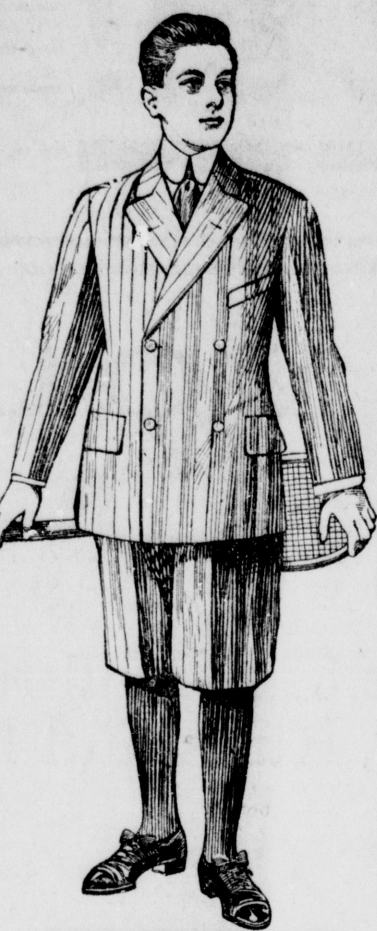

The P. E. has sent a force of 100 Mexicans here to make repairs on the road bed of the line. These laborers live in freight cars, with their families, and are under the supervision of Signor Patricio Roach, of the county of Rescommon. Their houses—or cars—are now stationed in the S. P. freight yards. So imbued are these people with the spirit of love of home life and better conditions that many of the families make an attempt at gardening in a small way in boxes fastened to the sides of the cars. A number have phonographs or some other form of music for their entertainment, and the familiar strains of popular airs can often be heard floating out from the sombre surroundings after the day is done or on a Sunday afternoon.

Superintendent Roach is anxious to have a school established for the benefit of the children of the men in his gang, all of whom live in the boarding cars, there being thirty-five of school age who are deprived of school advantages on account of the migratory nature of their fathers' employment. The officials of the company having promised to hire a teacher, as well as to provide a car for school purposes.

SANTA FE LOST OUT ON FULL CREW TRIAL

Will Appeal Case to Highest Court to Test Validity of New Law

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 25.—In the opening skirmish of the first legal prosecution under the "full crew" act, the Santa Fe suffered defeat. Justice of the Peace Pittman, before whom the evidence was laid several weeks ago, recently rendered his decision, finding the Santa Fe guilty of violating the act and sentencing it to pay a fine of $200.

The company already is at work perfecting an appeal, for the case is to go to the highest court in order to test the law.

The company is charged with furnishing but one brakeman for a four-coach train between San Bernardino and Los Angeles.

The law says that trains with more than three coaches must be supplied with three brakemen.

BECAUSE its shareholders have large holdings in the city and surrounding country and their interests are mutual.

BUYERS ARE NOT BUYING

No Offers for Apricots and Beans—Walnut Men Await Meeting

There is a slump in the buying market hereabouts just now in regard to both apricots and beans. While apricot growers seem to be confident that they are going to get thirteen and a half to fifteen cents, they cannot sell them at that or any other price just now. The local buyers are not authorized to pay any price.

Beans are also at a standstill, though the growers feel that the high prices will be maintained. The reason for the failure of the crops to move seems to be that the price is such that eastern speculators do not want to buy heavily for fear they will be unable to dispose of their buys.

No prices are being made on the walnut crops. Independents and associations are all awaiting the outcome of the meeting of the representatives of the Southern California associations. This meeting will be held in Los Angeles on September 30, and local growers expect to see considerable activity among the buyers immediately afterward.

The Santa Ana crop of walnuts is of good quality and is heavier than last year. Nuts that are falling and are being picked up are well matured. The demand for help in the orchards is growing rapidly. Mexican families are camping out in the vicinity of their "job" and the walnut orchards are taking on their scenes of fall activity.

LIMA BEAN GROWER MINUS EIGHT SACKS

William Wilson of Myford reported to Constable Squires last night that someone had stolen eight sacks of lima beans, worth $2, from Wilson's field near Myford. The theft probably occurred Saturday night, but may have occurred either Thursday night or Friday night. Wilson did not discover the loss until yesterday.

The sacks were picked up by some one driving a small wagon with one horse.

S. army bringing in supplies and dynamiting buildings, collapse of $1,000,000 City Hall, soldiers buried beneath falling walls, rescuers, refugees at the Ferry, etc., etc. On account of the immense crowd these pictures are bound to attract, there will be three shows, the first show will be promptly at 6:30 p. m. Doors open at 6:15. Second show at 8 o'clock. Last show at 9:15. The management urges that everybody who desires good seats to come either to the first show at 6:30 p. m., or last at 9:15, as the 8 o'clock show is certain to be over crowded.

Splendid Millinery Showings

The millinery openings have proved unusually fascinating this fall, perhaps because of the profusion of bright colors and rich hued trimmings that are being used. Nowhere are these more evident than at Crook-shank-Beatty's, where the key note of color and beauty is struck in the big show window, where a number of beautiful hats are displayed in an artistic environment of lace background, swaying ropes of fern and brilliantly tinted autumn leaves scattered over a base of soft white. One of the striking hats was a big one of black banded with gold braid. Another is of black and white, while still another is of purple with trimmings of blue and gold. A creation in cerise and brown is fetching, while a creation in black and green with immense wings is captivating.

In the window devoted to children's wear was seen nothing but white hats, ranging from soft white fur to the silk of a baby's hood. Dainty pinks and blues are used in the trimmings. In the sales room were seen gorgeously made chapeaux, some with high crowns, which are most popular, others with soft crush crowns and brims, the latter mostly in street hats. The trimmings are rich, including the Oriental bands, fancy feathers, the always favorite ostrich feathers, in French or willow plumes. Flowers are used to some extent, while velvets and silks are far in the lead.

Gilbert & Co.

At Gilbert & Company's is to be seen nobby creations in all the up-to-date styles. A big picture hat of black and purple, coral lined and graced with a handsome willow plume attracted immediate attention, while a draped black hood trimmed with old rose ruching and a cross band of rose velvet catching a willow plume is a beauty. A greatly admired creation is one of purple velvet with high soft crown and trimmed with coronation purple and crepe.

A king's blue velvet hat with iridescent wings is charming. King's blue, by the way, is one of the leading colors while coronation purple and gold are high in favor. The black and white hats are to the front and are elegant looking. Soft crush hats for both street and dress hats are popular, as well as the more picturesque hats.

Anderson & Wilhelm

This firm is displaying charming hats in every variety of style. A brown velvet, fur-banded, and with soft cloth of gold crown is very attractive. Another in brown has a two toned brown algerette and chinelle band with beads in purple and gold.

A white felt hat is trimmed with white French plumes and draped band of white and red corded silk. Many of the new creations shown here have Persian borders. One of the handsomest of these is in olive green with gold and blue in the Persian band. The opening here was very successful and new things are arriving daily.

Miss O'Donnell

Miss O'Donnell is showing a fine display of millinery, having a most up-to-date stock. Purple and black velvet are combined in a big hat on the poke order, with soft loop and ties of purple ribbon. A French plume completes the design. A white evening hat with cloth of gold crown and white plumes is most fetching. Purple is shown in the combination with many other colors, one of these being black faced and trimmed with marabout feathers. A shaded uncut velvet of black and purple is trimmed with a cerise poppy and gold cord and tassel. Here as elsewhere are seen the favorite blacks and whites, one black velvet bonnet shape being trimmed with an ermine breast.

Simple decorations marked the store of these popular milliners. The window display was also simple but

Blacks and whites abound largely in the hats shown at this shop, one especially beautiful creation being a black velvet hat with crown of white Irish lace, flanked on either side by graceful willow plumes. Another was trimmed in coronation purple and gold lace, while another was in black and silver.

Most of the dress hats are large, either in size or appearance, while the street hats shown are mostly chic and small. Willow plumes, marabout feathers and rich masses of flowers combine with velvets and applique bands, ribbons and silk in beautiful chapeaux.

At Miss Schumacher's

Just a glimpse of the opening at Miss Schumacher's on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. The Oriental idea is carried out in the pretty dress hats in the most attractive way, the blues blending beautifully with the dull greens and reds. One of the most striking effects is shown in a purple hat trimmed in the cone effect with an ostrich fancy feather and a band of bright red flowers. The effect is charming. The trimmings are all carefully selected to bring out the Oriental colorings. Hungarian embroidered bands, beaded lace and changeable velvets and silks combine in making charming and becoming hats.

The sales room was not decorated except for the ferns always in the window and huge bouquet of beautiful pink carnations, leaving the charm of the room to be produced by the beautiful chapeaux.

Miss Taylor

Miss Taylor has a classy display of chapeaux, one of the most striking groups being one in red, which is to be one of the leading colors of the season. Another to be seen was in King's Blue with variations in style and trimming. Some lovely black and whites called forth admiration while the browns and tans as shown in soft velvet hats with marvelous trimmings were extremely pleasing. Black hats brightened with gold, beads and oriental bands are rich in design and effect.

In this establishment are seen an elegant assortment of fancy feathers, the favorite ostrich plumes in all styles, hand made roses and fruit in velvet. High crowns here as elsewhere are the most conspicuous feature.

Physiologists Disagree

There are few persons who realize how greatly physiologists are at variance in their estimate of the actual work performed by the liver. While all agree that it is the largest and one of the very important glands of the body, when it comes to the question of the actual work performed, there seems to be a wide diversity of opinion.

Practically all are agreed, however, that the principal work of the liver is the separation of such materials contained in the body as might exert a poisonous influence upon the body unless thrown off.

Rexall Liver Salts has been produced with the idea of assisting the torpid liver to perform its proper functions in a proper manner, and the success which has attended the treatment leads us to recommend this preparation to you.

ABLY ARGUED FOR SUFFRAGE

Meeting on Street Held Saturday night—Speakers Also at Bell Theater

Owing to the poor lights, the equal suffrage meeting, scheduled to be held Saturday night at the corner of Rush and Second streets, was held on Fourth street instead, and the speakers addressed a good-sized street audience.

The automobile bearing Mr. and Mrs. Brady and Mrs. Katherine Wayne McCullough, the latter of Evanston, Ill., the only woman attorney licensed to practice before the United States Supreme Court, arrived in the city late Saturday afternoon, and their banner, "Votes for Women," attracted a good deal of attention.

The speakers presented earnest and forceful arguments as to why California, as a leader among the states, should give to women their right of suffrage.

Mrs. McCullough was introduced to the audience of the Bell Theater during the performance, by Mrs. M. A. Roberts. While the speaker's address was short, owing to the limited time at her disposal, her few well chosen remarks, judging from the applause she received, awoke a responsive chord in the hearts of very many of the audience.

BICYCLE STOLEN A YEAR AGO RECOVERED

Traced Back to Man Who Sold It to Newton's Bicycle Shop at Orange

George Placentia found a bicycle against the curb Saturday afternoon. The bicycle was one that was stolen from Placentia a year ago after it had been ridden but eleven days. Placentia recognized the bicycle against the curb as the one stolen from him, although the wheel was much worn, and in bad shape.

The bicycle was claimed by a Spanish boy, who showed a bill of sale from Newton's Bicycle Shop of Orange. Newton bought the bicycle several months ago, and he is looking for the man from whom his books show that he got it.

Musical Announcement

—Mrs. Minnie Hance, contralto soloist, recently from New York City where she has done church and concert work, will receive anyone interested in vocal art at the home of Miss Deardorff, 638 French street, Monday evening, Sept. 25, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Hance will sing a few numbers. The following press comments will be of interest:

From "Musical Courier," New York: "This promising contralto has been chosen as the soloist of Buch church, Fifth avenue and 37th street. She is gifted with a charming stage presence, an artistic temperament and a voice of remarkable range and that extremely rare cello-like quality which is essentially a distinguishing attribute of the pure contralto."

Boston Transcript: "There was a delightful gathering of musical people at a song recital given by Minnie Hance of New York Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Hance demonstrated her broad musical cultivation in the singing of songs by Brahms, Grieg, Schubert, Franz and Chaminade. In Handel's famous aria "Awake Saturnia" her method, style and expression were most admirable. Her voice, which is of noble quality, has a wide range and she sings with artistic expression and clearness of enunciation."

THE MAINE WAS WRECKED BY AN EXTERNAL EXPLOSION

After Thirteen Years, Raising of Vessel
Proves that 200 Brave Sailors Were Killed by Fiendish Deed

HAVANA, Sept. 25.—It has been made clear that the battleship Maine was destroyed by an external explosion. The cofferdam surrounding the wreck has been cleared of mud, giving a perfect view of the hull, or what is left of it, and now for the first time is revealed the double bottom of the ship, with part of the keel forced up into a perpendicular position, twenty-eight feet higher than the balance of the keel.

It is the belief that a huge boiler, probably a sugar mill boiler, or a large tank, loaded with powerful explosives, was used to blow up the Maine.

This discovery has created a sensation in Washington. Rear Admiral Richard Wainwright, who was executive officer on the Maine on the night that the ship was destroyed, said last night:

"I have always held to the opinion that the wreck was due to an external cause primarily and it is gratifying to find that the actual view of the wreck sustains what we have always considered as proven."

The actual work of lifting the historic wreck, that housed one of the greatest mysteries of the sea, was begun early this year, but it was not the first attempt.

The argument as to whether the Maine was sunk by an inside explosion or by outside agency had raged ever since the Spanish-American war, and in order to settle it the government had, on at least three occasions, empowered private contractors to undertake the work of hauling the hull out of the mud of Havana harbor.

In each instance the would-be raisers had abandoned the attempt after a brief effort. One of the contractors, however, succeeded in recovering several guns, the paymaster's chest and all but sixty-one of the victims' bodies.

Demand for the exposure of the wreck to view continued year after year and, finally, in the early part of 1910, congress passed a bill authorizing the raising of the Maine and appropriating $100,000 for the work. In this attempt it was provided that the work should be done under the direction of United States army engineers and not intrusted to private experts.

The Maine has lain for thirteen years in the harbor of Havana, with only a small portion of its turret, a mast, and stack exposed to view. The keel has rested on a coral bed, fifty feet below the surface of the water and partly under eighteen feet of black mud.

To raise the Maine out of this position various methods were proposed, but finally the engineers decided to use a cofferdam, a plan which involved the building of a wall around the wreck. This wall consists of a series of cylindrical tubes, built of steel, rock and cement and so joined that they form an absolutely watertight compartment.

It took approximately six months to build the cofferdam and it was not until July of this year, that the work of pumping the water out of it was begun. Powerful pumps were put at work, however, and they have been pumping a practically steady stream of water and mud since that time.

Within a few days after the pumping began the raisers were able to see a large portion of the upper works and in time numerous relics of the explosion were uncovered. Among other things was an officer's sword and the foremost of the warship, weighing about eight tons. This was broken off just below deck when the ship was blown up and had fallen on the deck. The fragment was shipped to New York and is to be erected at Brooklyn Navy Yard as a flagstaff.

The vessel is now practically all exposed to view and the investigators have just finished their first study of the hull, which showed conclusively that the wrecking agency had been planted beneath the ship, which was destroyed and carried to death 200 American sailors; precipitated war between the United States and Spain and resulted in the loss to Spain of all her New World colonies.

MCDANNALD IS TICKLED TO DEATH WITH THE HOT SPRINGS

SAN JUAN HOT SPRINGS, Sept. 25.—This morning, a little after day-break, Jasper Leck coupled old "Betsey" to the gasoline tank, and together we started for the springs. It being my first visit to this beautiful mountain-girt resort, and knowing naught of the dips, spurs, angles, curves or sinuosities of the grades, I naturally enough felt a little bit skittish, but when we arrived at Capistrano and the parish priest, Father St. John O'Sullivan, volunteered to accompany us, my misgivings scudded like a "Clipper" under full sail. The roads up San Juan creek canyon are a marvel of correctness, and reflect great credit to the man who has them under his gentle care. For a goodly part of the way the roads run through a section known as "No Man's Land," and must depend on gratuitous work for their up-keep. A many places the grades take on a sharp angle, like the turning of a street corner, and by accident, perchance, you find yourself in the lap of your lady passenger, but a rap on the ear from the dainty knuckles, and you realize you are out of place. Jasper is a careful and experienced chauffeur, and I'd back him to make that run in perfect safety in any sum from a million up. The canyon is a model of beauty from end to end, and must be seen to be appreciated. Anyone who would not enjoy or go into ecstasies over the scenery where His handiwork has been most lavishly bestowed, must have a mental defect, and should be treated.

At the springs we found everything blended in perfect harmony. Over there on the hillside an old burro is quietly nipping the short grass that grows along the ditch. On the veranda sits Bob Paine telling a short(?) story to some attentive ladies. The scene is so correctly arranged that I long for a camera.

By the urgent solicitation of several friends, I took a bath. A few people may have their doubts, but this is not the first bath I have taken. Several years ago I undertook to cross the Cowlitz river when the canoe upset and I was out in the midst of real water, turbulent torrents of it, and only for the timely arrival of succor, this "sucker" might have been there yet. But why these reminiscences? The bath tubs are neat and clean, or at least this one was, and they admonish you to use "water aplenty." You can have it at any temperature you desire, from boiling hot to the point of freezing. I chose a medium, say about 104 degrees. With the slow and regular approach of age, I have felt an occasional rheumatic twinge. Of late those confounded "twinges" have recurred with alarming haste, and that once impeded gait has had quite a stammering halt. One dip in this sulphur impregnated bath, and those rheumatic aches have fled like leaves before a forest fire. And to prove that youthful energy and activity had again returned, I placed my hat on the dome of the cupola and jumped over it. But I had one more disappointment in that bath. After I had rubbed and scrubbed for an hour or more, causing the offal sewage to look like a hydraulic sluice box, I attempted to get into my clothes, but the once perfect fitting tailored suit seemed to have been made for a man about four sizes before. They hung limp and lame around my form like a "Mother Hubbard."

The "Gods' Creation" outdid all former efforts in making of this most ideal camping ground to be found anywhere in this land of beautiful resorts. Hundreds of little nooks hemmed in between towering hills, and covered with a dense foliage of sycamore, willow, alder, birch, sumach, or the grand old majestic live oak, make a camp ground fit for the gods or koddesses of any age, or degree of respectability. I have been informed by those who seem to know, that a fortnight of these baths daily will cure any kind of skin disorder, or correct the most evil tendencies of the blood. If they only would purge one's system of the "prevarication" habit, how cheerfully I'd recommend them to a lot of fellows I know. Don't wince so, George!

A bunch of we youngsters, including Miss Kate Rutherford, Miss Mary McNeill, Miss Irene Beairisto, J. R. Paine, Jim Cain, Robert Paine, Morris Cain, and "me," started up Sievers canyon at an early hour, and by dint of hard rustling and a good supply of "coax" words, succeeded in getting back to our boarding house just in time to see the waiter girl pass out through the dining room door with the last leg of chicken, and only for the "mint julep" I found on the way, the remainder of this chapter would not be "writ."

Miss Rutherford is a crack target shot, and only that Dr. Carver stands in the way, she would now be champion of America. I placed a half dollar against a knee—you may have a curiosity in knowing where and how I became possessed of so much money, and I'll frankly tell you it's none of your business. She steadied the implement of destruction at arm's length, squinted down the glistening barrel, gently touched the trigger, and I'll be gosh darned if she didn't knock every feather out of the eagle's tail.

Going up Sievers canyon we pass through narrow gorges, hemmed in by insurmountable walls hundreds of feet high, and worn by the rushing waters, perhaps untold centuries ago, until they are smooth as polished marble. There are many ledges of basalt cropping out across the creek bed, thus forming a natural site for a storage dam, but to my surprise there was no storage reservoir by a dam site. P. S. This last remark is not original. I borrowed it from a gentleman down at Culpepper courthouse. Fellow citizens, if you are in need of a good comfortable bath, one which not only removes the accumulated dirt and decay, possibly a subject some of us have sadly neglected for several years, but one which will linger in the memory long after that mother-in-law has "ceased her earthly pilgrimages" or laid with thee at rest" feeling has left those tired limbs of mine. The hotel is a model of convenience and comfort, and in the sleeping paddocks I never discovered a—not even a small tiny one. But h—sh, what's the use talking of disagreeable things where they don't exist.

I understand Bob Paine objects to the arrangement of the little story where, in an indirect way he is connected with another donkey. I have no apology to make. The scene burned itself into my forgetters tank so indelibly, there was no opportunity for change.

IN A BAD WAY

Many a Santa Ana Reader Will Feel Grateful for This Information

When your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; When urinary troubles set in; Your kidneys are "in a bad way." Dean's Kidney Pills will cure you. Here is local evidence to prove it: S. H. Whitehead, 607 West First street, Santa Ana, Calif., says: "A great many people have called upon me to learn about my experience with Dean's Kidney Pills and at such times I have always recommended this remedy in the highest terms. For several years I was troubled by a weak and painful back. If I did any lifting, or over-worked, I suffered from sharp twinges through my loins. I also had much trouble from the kidney secretions, the passages being at times too frequent, then again just the reverse. Dean's Kidney Pills helped me at once and it was not long after beginning their use that I was entirely relieved. During the past two and a half years, I have had but little trouble from my back or kidneys."

MOTORCYCLE AND BOY, TOO

Machine Taken From Shop Found in Willows on West Seventeenth Street

Glittering of Spokes Caught the Attention of a Passer-by

The glittering of the spokes of a motorcycle yesterday resulted in the recovery of a stolen motorcycle and in the arrest of Everett Brann, a 15-year-old boy.

The motorcycle was taken from the Excelsior shop, of which A. N. Emery is proprietor, about a week ago. It was the second motorcycle taken from the shop. The first was taken two or three months ago, and the proprietor thought whoever got it must have been hiding in the store when the place was locked up. That motorcycle was found in the riverbed near West Seventeenth street. The second motorcycle was found in the same vicinity.

Yesterday Blaine Cox, son of Justice of the Peace Cox, was riding along the road on West Seventeenth street when he saw something glittering in the willows off the road. He investigated, and found a new motorcycle covered with sacks, all except one wheel which gave forth the tell-tale glitter.

Cox came into town and notified the first officer he saw, Frank Gilbert, and with Gilbert returned to the place. Young Brann was at work over the machine. He was taken in charge by the officer and was placed in the Detention Home.

He stated that he hid in a box in the store, and after the store was closed opened the door from the inside. He denied anything to do with taking the motorcycle two or three months ago.

Hearing Is Set
William Moore, who is charged with embezzling a wagon and four mules from Oscar Rosenbaum of San Juan Capistrano, was in justice's court this morning for arraignment. His preliminary examination was set down for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. His bond was fixed at $2500.

Scattering Them
This morning six more of the circus

followers were turned out of jail and told to go. This afternoon three more went out and tomorrow the remaining half-dozen are to be told to go. They all pleaded guilty to vagrancy, and a thirty-day sentence is suspended in order to insure that they will carry out their promises to leave.

Cruelty Charged
In the justice's court today G. A. Whidden, secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, swore to a complaint charging P. B. Michel and two of his riders with cruelty to animals. Michel is manager of the S. & M. ranch, which is the cattle lease of the north end of the Irvine ranch.

Michel has been fattening cattle on some of the best tops in the fields near Northam station. Thursday between sixty and seventy cows and their calves were driven into a yard at Northam station, and the calves were shipped to Los Angeles. It is alleged that the cows were allowed to stay in the yard without feed and water until Saturday morning. It seems that Michel went to Los Angeles with the calves, and his two employees went away without arranging to care for the cows or to turn them back into the best fields.

Constable Jackson, who is officer of the society, went to Northam station yesterday to investigate, and the warrant was issued this morning by Justice Cox.

GOOD ADVICE FOR SANTA ANA PEOPLE

People in Santa Ana who have constipation, sour stomach or gas on the stomach, should use simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Alder-ika, the new German appendicitis remedy. A SINGLE DOSE brings relief almost INSTANTLY because this simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and drains the impurities. Rowley Drug Co.

GOOD FUEL CHEAP
—At our yards, Fruit street and S. P. tracks, until Oct. 15, apricot pits shells only $2.50 per ton; after Oct. 15 the price will be $3 per ton. Come while they are cheap. They burn freely and make a hot fire—big fuel value for the money. Guggenheim Co.

TEAM STOLEN FROM WASSUM

Gray Mare and Black Mule Ridden Away From Mesa South of the Bay

Animals Were Tracked as Far as Tustin, Where the Trail Was Lost

A mare and a mule belonging to Howard Wassum were stolen Saturday night from the mesa back of Corona Del Mar where a crew was engaged in baling hay.

The animals were stolen probably about 11 or 12 o'clock Saturday night. Yesterday morning when the theft was discovered the trail of the team was taken up and followed as far as Tustin, where it was lost. The thief was riding one and leading the other, or else there were two thieves, each riding an animal.

Deputy Sheriff Jernigan telephoned and sent out circulars describing the missing animals all over California.

The animals as described are: One iron-gray mare, 850 pounds, 4-year-old, with rope cut on left hind leg below knee; heavy mane hanging on both sides of neck. One black horse mule, 950 pounds, 12-year-old, tall clipped but two tassels left at end, shod in front.

The sheriff's office has received a report from City Marshal Kallenberger of Anaheim that a buckskin horse hitched to an old wagon was stolen there Saturday night. Kallenberger thinks it possible that the horse strayed away, as had a horse-thief been hunting for an outfit he would hardly have taken that rig in preference to others in the lot.

—There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure, have rendered it incurable. It is a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
